

LAAB Summary Report
February 18-19, 2005 Meeting

The Landscape Architectural Accreditation Board (LAAB) met on February 18-19, 2005. The LAAB made the following accreditation decisions:

Granted accreditation for six years (due to expire on December 31, 2010) to:

Ball State University – course of study leading to the first professional MLA degree
North Dakota State University – course of study leading to the first professional BLA degree
University of Pennsylvania – course of study leading to the first professional MLA degree

The LAAB thanks the following individuals who participated as visiting team members (team chairs in bold):

Ball State University – Jack Williams, ASLA, Bruce Sharky, FASLA, and Bart Berg, ASLA

North Dakota State University – Ray Weisenberger, Mark Hoversten, FASLA, and Karl Von Bieberstein, FASLA

University of Pennsylvania – Peter Trowbridge, FASLA, Dixon Hanna and Rick Ciardella, ASLA

Also, LAAB has adopted a more detailed policy on delaying visits, accredited programs are submitting annual reports via the internet this spring and LAAB has developed a plan to update and train the Roster of Visiting Evaluators.
