

The Community Service Award Descriptive Data Summary

Entry No. _____

Please use an easily readable typeface no smaller than 10-point size. This form may be single-spaced, but may only be two (2) pages total. Complete and print out form and insert the two pages of this form to show as the first two views of the Entry Binder.

Nominee: Nakasato Juji Project / landscape architect: Ryo Yamada + Ayako Yamada

Contact: Ryo Yamada

Address: Jarlegata 13, 0656

City/State/Zip: Oslo, NORWAY

Phone: +47,2190 9818

FAX:

Email: ryo-yamada@mbs.sphere.ne.jp

Time period pro bono service has been provided (dates):

Narrative Summary: Please describe the nature of the pro bono services provided, the beneficiary(ies) of the service(s), how the service(s) impacted the community, and how the service(s) demonstrated sound principles of landscape design.

destruction

Between autumn 2002, the old private beautiful house was destroyed. The private house had everybody's a lot of memories. It was destroyed for road extension construction. The wooden component of memories is thrown away in the demolition site. These were chosen together with the client. And it was given gratuitously. It is said that it burns as firewood of a stove when not given.

memory

It is the material of the selected 'memories'.
a mainstay, the threshold of sitting room,
and beam of a Japanese-style room etc...
It selected with carpenter who actually constructed 40 years ago.

