April is World Landscape Architecture Month (WLAM)!

Join us in celebrating the global impact of landscape architecture. Led by the American Society of Landscape Architects (ASLA), WLAM is an opportunity to showcase how landscape architects design healthy, beautiful, and resilient places for all.

2025 Theme: “Beyond Boundaries”

This year, we’re highlighting how landscape architects are breaking down barriers—whether physical, political, or cultural—to create innovative solutions for today.

This toolkit is your go-to resource for raising awareness about landscape architecture throughout WLAM 2025 and beyond. It’s filled with inspiration, resources, and easy ways to engage and celebrate landscape architecture all month long!

Social Media Prompts

Need inspiration? Use these prompts during the first week of WLAM (April 1-5) to kick off the month-long celebration! Whether you do one, a few, or all, we'd love to see how you celebrate landscape architecture! Keep posting throughout April and continue to use #WLAM2025 to share your stories, projects, and inspirations.

Tuesday, April 1: Landscape Architects Go Beyond Boundaries By...

Show how landscape architects break down barriers—physical, political, and cultural—to design healthy, beautiful, and resilient places for all. Share a personal story or a project that made a difference, or show behind-the-scenes of your design process.

Wednesday, April 2: Professional Landscape Architects Day (#PLADay)

Celebrate #PLADay by recognizing the value and impact of Professional Landscape Architects (PLAs).

- Use #PLADay to:
 - Recognize Your Team of PLAs
 - Highlight the Value of Licensure: Explain how licensure ensures public health, safety, and welfare.
 - Share Your Journey to Licensure
- Recommended Format for Referencing a PLA: Name, ASLA Member Designation (if applicable), PLA
- Download a PLA Day graphic or customize this template by adding your own image.

Social Media Prompts Continued

Thursday, April 3: What I Love Most About Landscape Architecture Is...

What makes landscape architecture special to you? Was there a project that changed your perspective, or a moment that made you fall in love with the profession? Share a personal story, a favorite design, or an inspiring experience.

Friday, April 4: Landscape Architects Help Communities Thrive By...

Share before-and-after images, community success stories, or a project that turned an outdoor space into something extraordinary. Tag the community or partners involved in the project to highlight collaboration and celebrate shared successes.
